Years are the footprints of time; for each year leaves its mark on the history of the earth. Likewise, the high-school years of the senior leave impressions not soon forgotten by his society. These imprints reveal the development of a growing understanding and judgment. We have left our footprints at Springfield High School in our classes, in our activities, and in the memories of our teachers and friends. However, our present and past endeavors are not sufficient. To what will we owe our future success or failure? This is a question which must be answered by the individual. Answer it yourself. Will your impressions be lasting? If so, will they be beneficial or detrimental? The choice is yours.

These are our leaders, the officers of the student body.

Left to right: President, Bernie Thompson; Vice President, Marty Crays; and Secretary, Jim Freed.

Every day we have left our footprints at Springfield High. From the time we came to school . . .

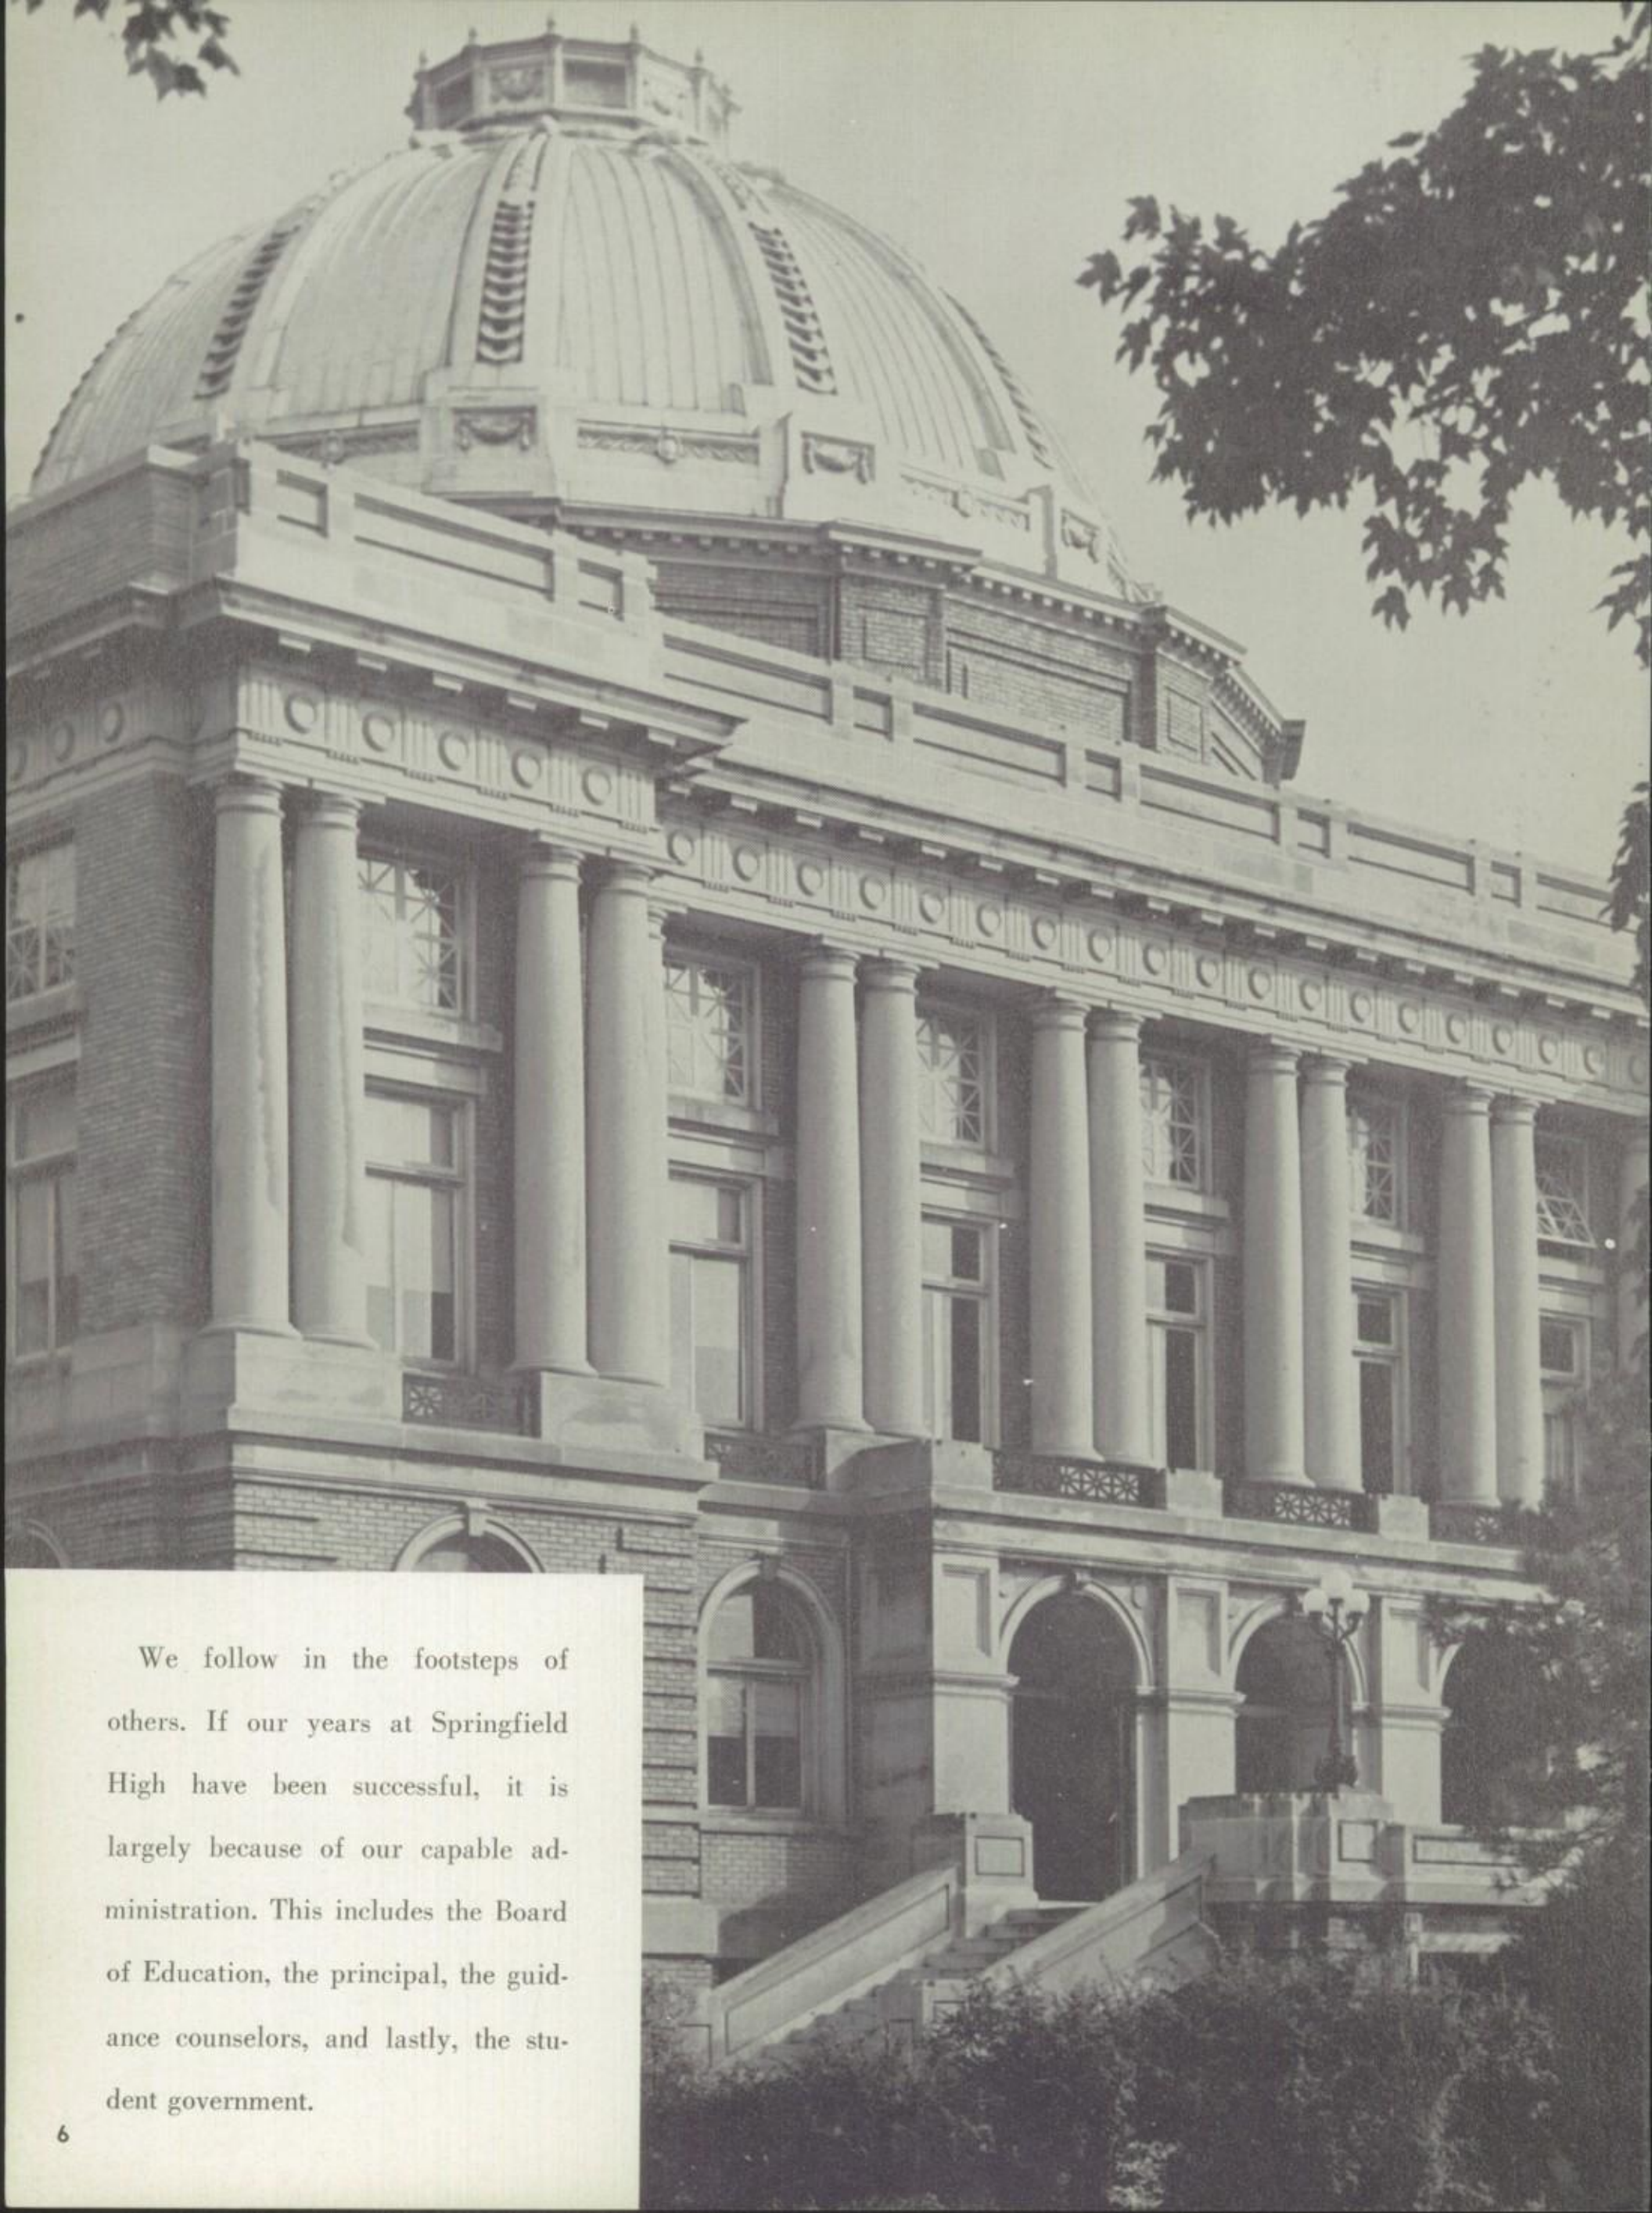
. . . got our books . . .

. . . went to class . . .

. . . until . . .

. . . the school day was finished and we met our friends . . .

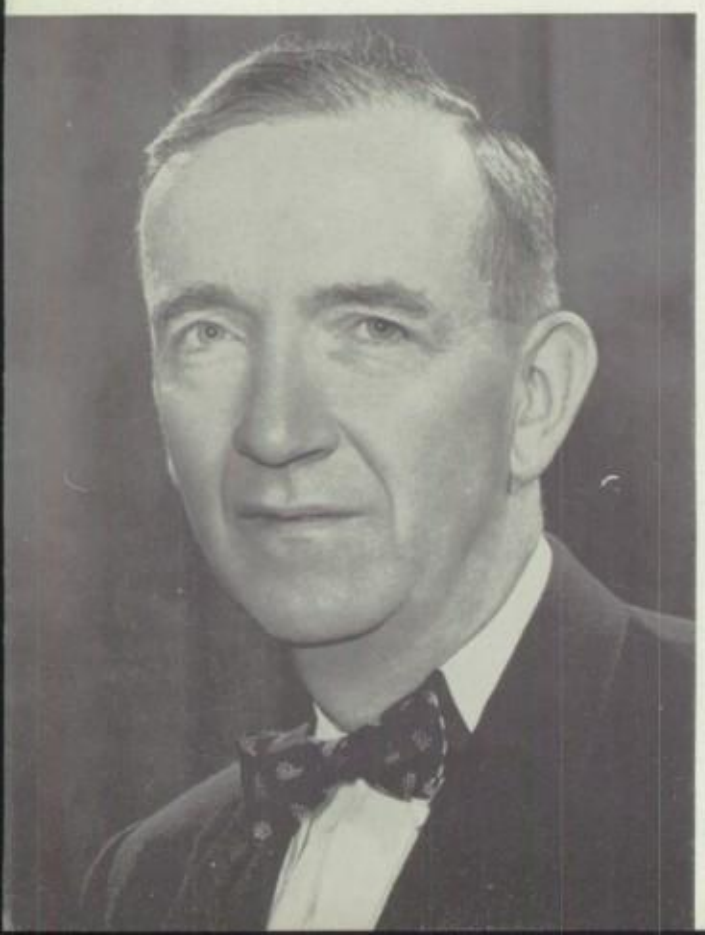
. . . we tried to improve ourselves and our school.



We follow in the footsteps of others. If our years at Springfield High have been successful, it is largely because of our capable administration. This includes the Board of Education, the principal, the guidance counselors, and lastly, the student government.

Seated: Mrs. Bodenberg, Mr. Don Applegate, President; Mr. E. E. Holt. Standing: Mr. Max Reich, Mr. Earl Skillings, Mr. Ed Forrer, Mrs. Mildred Hartman, Clerk of the Board; Mr. E. J. Carmony.

The Board of Education consists of elected representatives who determine the policies for the Springfield public schools.



Right: Mr. E. E. Holt, the Superintendent of Schools, directs school administration in Springfield.

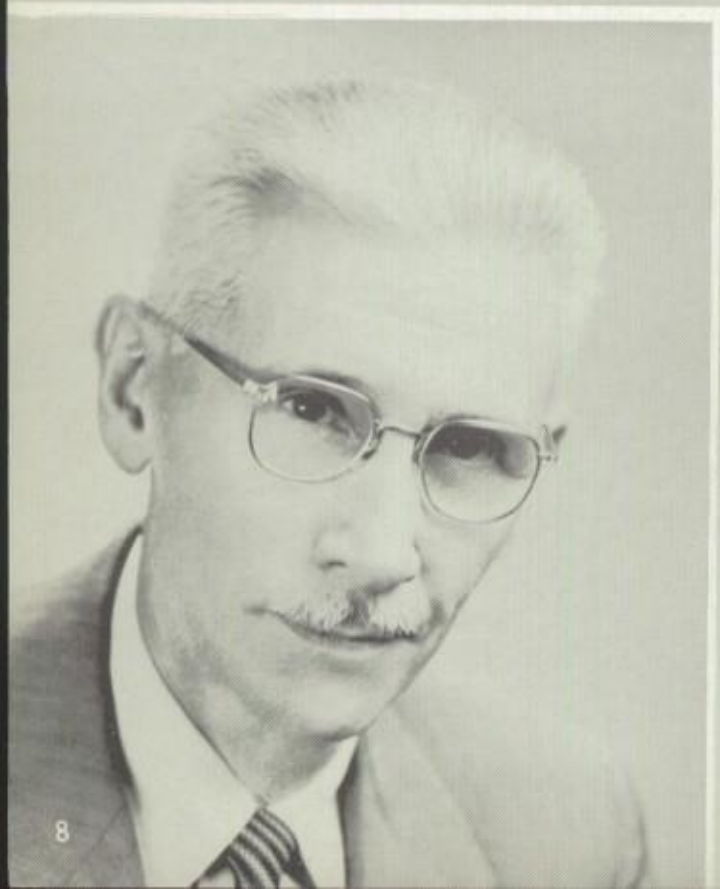
MR. WARFEL

Mr. Warfel, assistant principal, is instrumental in the organization of teachers' and students' schedules. He also adjusts and adds subjects to the curriculum of the school. Besides this, he is in charge of the sale, distribution, and collection of all tickets for athletic and other extracurricular events.

The three guidance counselors, Mr. Young, Miss Hume, and Mr. Peters, help the students plan their courses and aid them in solving home, school, and vocational problems.



MR. YOUNG

Right: Assistant secretary, Miss Sue Ruchty.

An attendance counselor is assigned to each sophomore class and is rotated upward with the class each succeeding year. This way every student has the same attendance counselor his three years at Springfield High School.

The Executive Board of the Student Council is the main body of student government at Springfield High. The homeroom presidents and vice presidents become members of either Sophomore Boys' Council, Junior-Senior Boys' Council, or Girls' Council. Twelve representatives chosen from these groups, together with the President, Vice President, and Secretary-Treasurer of the student body, make up the Executive Board. The Executive Board acts on ideas presented by the different councils. This form of government is designed to give each student at Springfield High School a part in the running of his school.

Center: Girls' Council. President, Marty Crays; Sandra Badgley, Kay Littler, and Sandy Sions.

Bottom: Sophomore Boys' Council. Fred Shively, Bill Williams, Ed Schecter, and President, Charles Mason.

Those who travel the road of public schooling follow the footprints which lead to the distant goal of graduation. We, as seniors, have nearly reached that goal. As the senior year marks the ultimate in free education, it is the conclusion of schooling for some; others, however, are looking ahead toward college. Whatever our future, none of us will ever forget the rich and happy days spent at Springfield High. At right: Large picture, senior officers; inset, senior nominees.

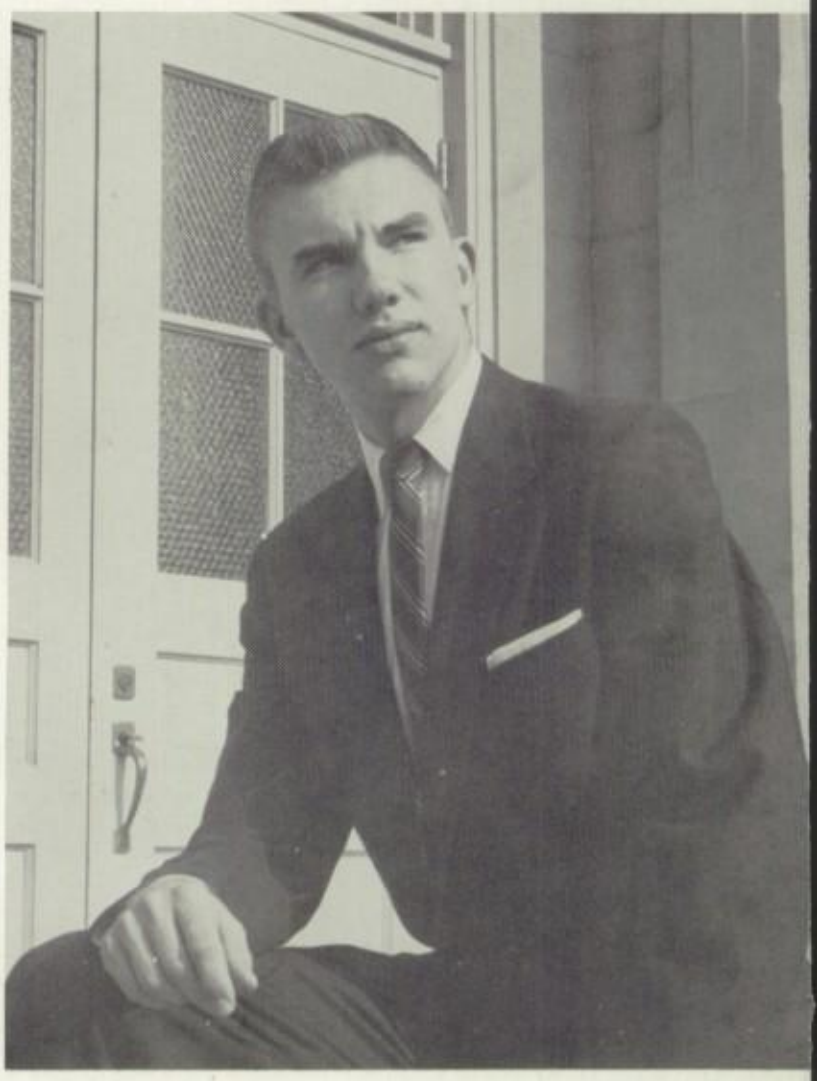
Below: A group of seniors who are struggling with the Senior Scholarship Test.

outstanding seniors

Martha Crays, one of our most active senior girls, has participated in almost everything that Springfield High School has had to offer. Some of her many activities were Latin, French, Star and Atom, Boosters', Future Nurses, Dramatics, National Forensic League, and Social Science. She also treasures her membership in the National Honor Society. Marty was on Executive Board of Student Council and was Vice President of the student body.



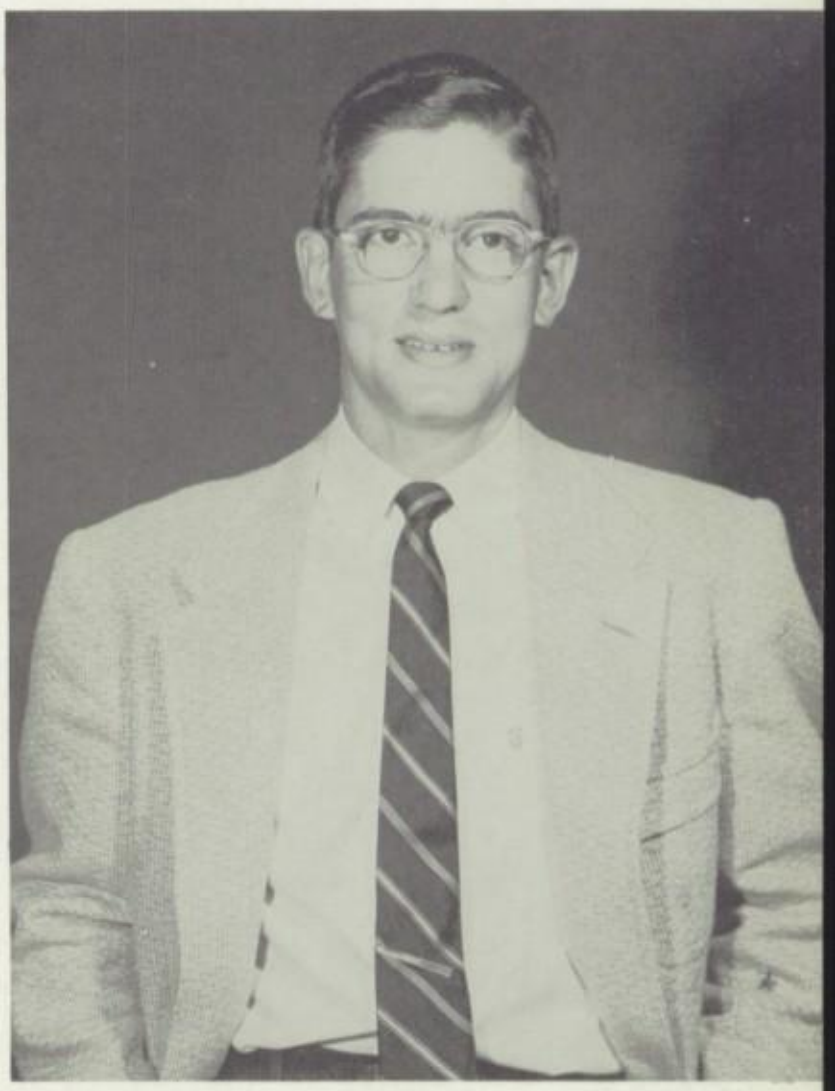
Mike Rose, one of S.H.S.'s most prominent leaders, was President of Junior-Senior Boys' Council during his senior year. Among the clubs in which he held membership were Star and Chevron, Dramatics, Star and Atom, German, Boosters', National Thespian, and National Forensic League. He participated in Forum, the junior and senior class plays, intramurals, and is the well-liked President of Hi-Y. Induction into National Honor Society served as a climax to this senior's career.

Pat Kuhns, a very popular senior girl, was a cheerleader and a relay queen. She was active in dramatics and choir and during her senior year was President of French Choir, Secretary of French Club, and Secretary of Star and Atom Club. Outstanding for the number of hours spent serving the school in Star and Chevron work, Pat ended her senior year with membership in National Honor Society.

Another vivacious senior girl is witty Jane Johnston. She is an outstanding example of a person who not only can participate in such activities as Dramatics, French, Latin, Boosters', and Star and Atom Clubs, and French Choir, but also is able to add National Honor Society and Relay Queen to her achievements. Jane will also be remembered for her spirited cheerleading.

Stuart Shanor, one of our active senior boys, was a member of "A" Choir and Dramatics Club since his sophomore year and will long be remembered for his magnificent performance in the spring drama, Our Town. His many activities included Star and Chevron, Boosters', and National Thespian Society.

In 1955 the presidency of the student body of Springfield High was placed in the capable hands of Bernie Thompson. This popular senior participated in many activities; such as, Star and Chevron, the Executive Board of Student Council, Herald Staff, Boosters' Club, and Future Teachers of America. He became a member of the Varsity "S" Club in his junior year. During the last few months of his senior year, Bernie served as a student government day officer and was inducted into the National Honor Society.



Jim Freed, Secretary-Treasurer of Executive Board, participated in a variety of activities during his high school career. He received the Optimist Award and, during his senior year, was initiated into National Honor Society. He was a member of Latin, German, Boosters', Star and Atom, National Thespian and National Forensic League. As a member of the tennis team, this outstanding senior earned his letter and membership in the Varsity "S" Club.

Jane Miranda, one of our most popular senior girls, has been active in many clubs since coming to Springfield High School. Jane belonged to Boosters' Club, Latin Club, History Forum, Dramatics Club, and Future Teachers and was in her senior year Treasurer of Star and Atom Club, Vice President of French Club, and Secretary of "A" Choir. Her three years of scholastic achievement were climaxed by her initiation into National Honor Society.

Well-liked by all who know him, Dave Mattes was elected President of the senior class. While at Springfield High School, Dave was active in Latin, Boosters', and German Clubs and was a member of Student Council. He was taken into the Varsity "S" Club by acquiring letters in cross-country, golf, and basketball. The school honored him further by selecting him as a "big brother," a participant in student government day, and a member of the National Honor Society.

Jack States was the very capable President of our Boosters' Club this past year. His many activities include Latin Club, Spanish Club, Star and Atom Club, the junior and senior class plays, and Hi-Y. He served as fire prevention chief on city government day and climaxed his high school career with membership in National Honor Society.

Ileen Bruce, active in dramatics and vocal work, was a member of the Honor Court. During her three years at Springfield High School, she participated in Latin Club, Spanish Club, Star and Chevron, and National Forensic League and was elected to the National Honor Society.

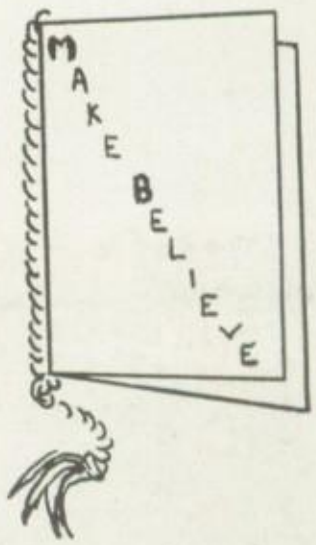
These couples danced to the music of Harold Bectol's orchestra.



This year the Junior-Senior Prom was attended by approximately two hundred couples. The theme, "Make Believe," was carried out by the use of large lollipops and cotton candy. The color scheme used was of pink, blue, and white crepe paper draped from every beam. This Prom, headed by Mr. Grilk and his assistant, Mr. Peters, was the largest Springfield High has ever held. A gay time was had by all.

graduation

Elaine Vennewitz, Alan Hube, and Sharon Aler congratulate Harry Roth after the ceremony.

Graduation of the Class of '55 took place on June 9. Both Dr. Ralph McDonald, President of Bowling Green University, and Harry Roth, valedictorian, presented inspiring talks. After Mr. Fox presented the class, Mr. E. E. Holt read the names of the graduates to whom diplomas were then awarded by Mr. Don Applegate, President of the Board of Education. With this graduation ceremony, 560 students ended their careers at Springfield High School.

Below: The climax of years of work—commencement.

Following in the footsteps of the seniors are the underclassmen of Springfield High School. In one or two years they also will walk down the aisle to receive their diplomas. Between now and that time, however, these students are putting forth effort to make their school a better place. May their years at Springfield High School be happy and productive.

The most outstanding footprints found along the halls of Springfield High School are those made by our faculty. Following them, we have discovered a whole new horizon of knowledge and experience. The guidance of these men and women will remain with us long after we have left Springfield High.

French

Latin, French, Spanish, and German comprise the foreign languages offered at Springfield High. Latin is no longer a spoken language; however, it is the basis of all other languages. Having studied it, the student possesses a broader understanding of history and a larger vocabulary. The other languages give the individual a greater knowledge of the individual countries. Such knowledge can and should lead to better understanding among people of the world.

vocational trade

The basic principle of trade and industrial education is learning by doing. The needs of the individual are the foundations upon which all instructional activity is based. Vocational training helps the youth develop saleable skills and knowledges and of desirable work habits and social attitudes that will enable them to take their places as contributing members of the community and our democratic society. Trade and industrial education can make effective contributions to the attainment of this objective and in addition contribute to the overall development of the individual as a member of our society.

The Band Officers this year were Gene Penwell, Dave Perron, and Barrett Lloyd.

MR. STOCKER

Outstanding enjoyment and entertainment was provided for our student body and also for the citizens of Springfield by the many functions of our music department. The choir presented their yearly list of performances at Convocation and, as always, brought tears to many eyes at Commencement. The Orchestra was kept very busy by giving their traditional concerts and supplying the background music for many assemblies and plays. No athletic contest or pep rally could be complete without the stirring music of the band, who climaxed their year with the annual spring concert.

MRS. SULLIVAN

MISS HOWELL

In the girls' Physical Education Department, you will find either Mrs. Elizabeth Sullivan or Miss Sally Howell teaching the girls many new and different sports. The trail of footprints which we have left at Springfield High School pauses many times along the way. These pauses are for the many clubs and activities which are offered for the purpose of making the road a little easier. They not only give us leisure, but they provide us with extra bits of knowledge which may be valuable to us in later years.

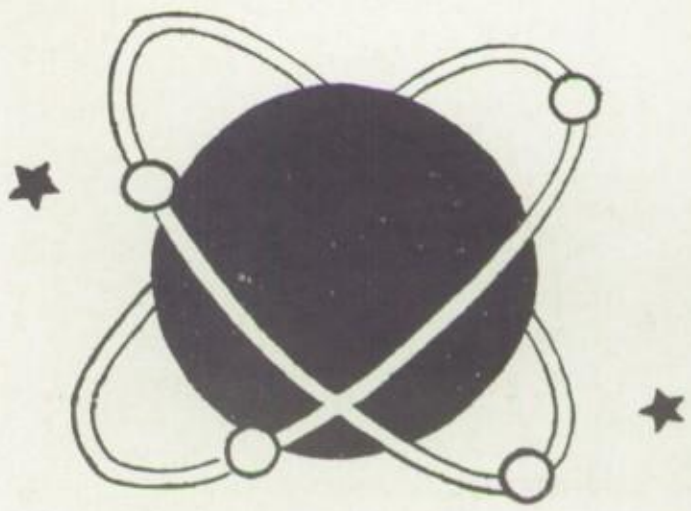
Many interesting programs were presented this year by the Star and Atom Club, under the supervision of Mr. Foote. James Caplinger and Charles Finsley demonstrated several scientific principles for us. Besides having many interesting speakers this year, the club also visited the Ohio Thermometer Company.



camera club

Camera Club is a worthwhile club for the student who is interested in expanding his photographic ability. Mr. Charles Thomas, the faculty advisor of the club, led the club in many interesting excursions. The officers this year were: President, Linda Ross; and Secretary-Treasurer, Kay Winget. During the year the club visited Olan Mills, the Springfield News and Sun, and Wright-Patterson Air Force Base. The club also operated the coat check at all the home basketball games. variety show

Below: This year Springfield High School put on a variety show featuring the dance band under the direction of Mr. Stocker. One of the highlights of this program was a senior chorus line consisting of twelve boys, dressed as girls, dancing to "Five Foot Two." It proved to be another of the successful events of the year.

One of the quieter moments in the play.

The Royal Family, the senior class play presented on November 18 and 20, was a madcap comedy dealing with the hilarious antics of the "first family" of the theater.

junior class play

Father of the Bride, a delightful comedy dealing with the problems a father encounters in getting his daughter properly married, was presented by the Junior Class on February 11 and 12.

A scene from Father of the Bride.

spring drama

The dramatic success of the year was the presentation of Our Town with Stuart Shanor in the leading role as "stage manager." As can be seen in the pictures of the cast (above) and the stage crew (below right), the play was given without scenery. However, before the end of the first act, the audience realized that no scenery was needed; and when the final line was spoken, there were very few, either beyond the footlights or in front of them, whose eyes were dry. Hats off to the dramatics arts classes for a splendid production!

On March 25 and 26 the choir and orchestra presented the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, Ruddigore, under the direction of Mrs. Bonifant, Miss Gaver, and Mr. Stocker. Heading a cast of seventy-five in this story of a witch's curse were Ileen Bruce, John Snyder, and Fred Fox. Triennially the music department of Springfield High School presents an operetta, and this year's elaborate production was well received.

October 17, 1954, Springfield High School held its annual Homecoming at Evans Stadium during the half-time of the Springfield-Canton-McKinley game. The five queens, Barbara Smith, Darlene Williams, Ileen Bruce, Clara Johnson, Elaine Vennewitz, having been driven around the track, were escorted to the football field by Jim Freed, Dave Mattes, George McCleary, Ed Hardnick, and Bernie Thompson, respectively. Because of the pouring rain, however, they could not preside over the completion of the game.

Sophomore History Forum, under the guidance of Mr. Ray Pepper, has spent a very interesting and informative year. Since it is the club's purpose to supplement a scholastic history education with modern current events, the members take annual field trips, stopping this year at the Sunbeam Bakery, the County Jail, and the Champion Chemical Company.

vocational industrial

Vocational Industrial Club is formed for the purpose of exploring the various branches of industrial work. Many of the members have already chosen their field, but the others are still looking into pattern making, sheet metal, drafting, machine shop, and the foundry. As an important part of Springfield High, the club has been successful in establishing high standards of conduct and workmanship, stimulating interest in community affairs, and developing leadership among its members.

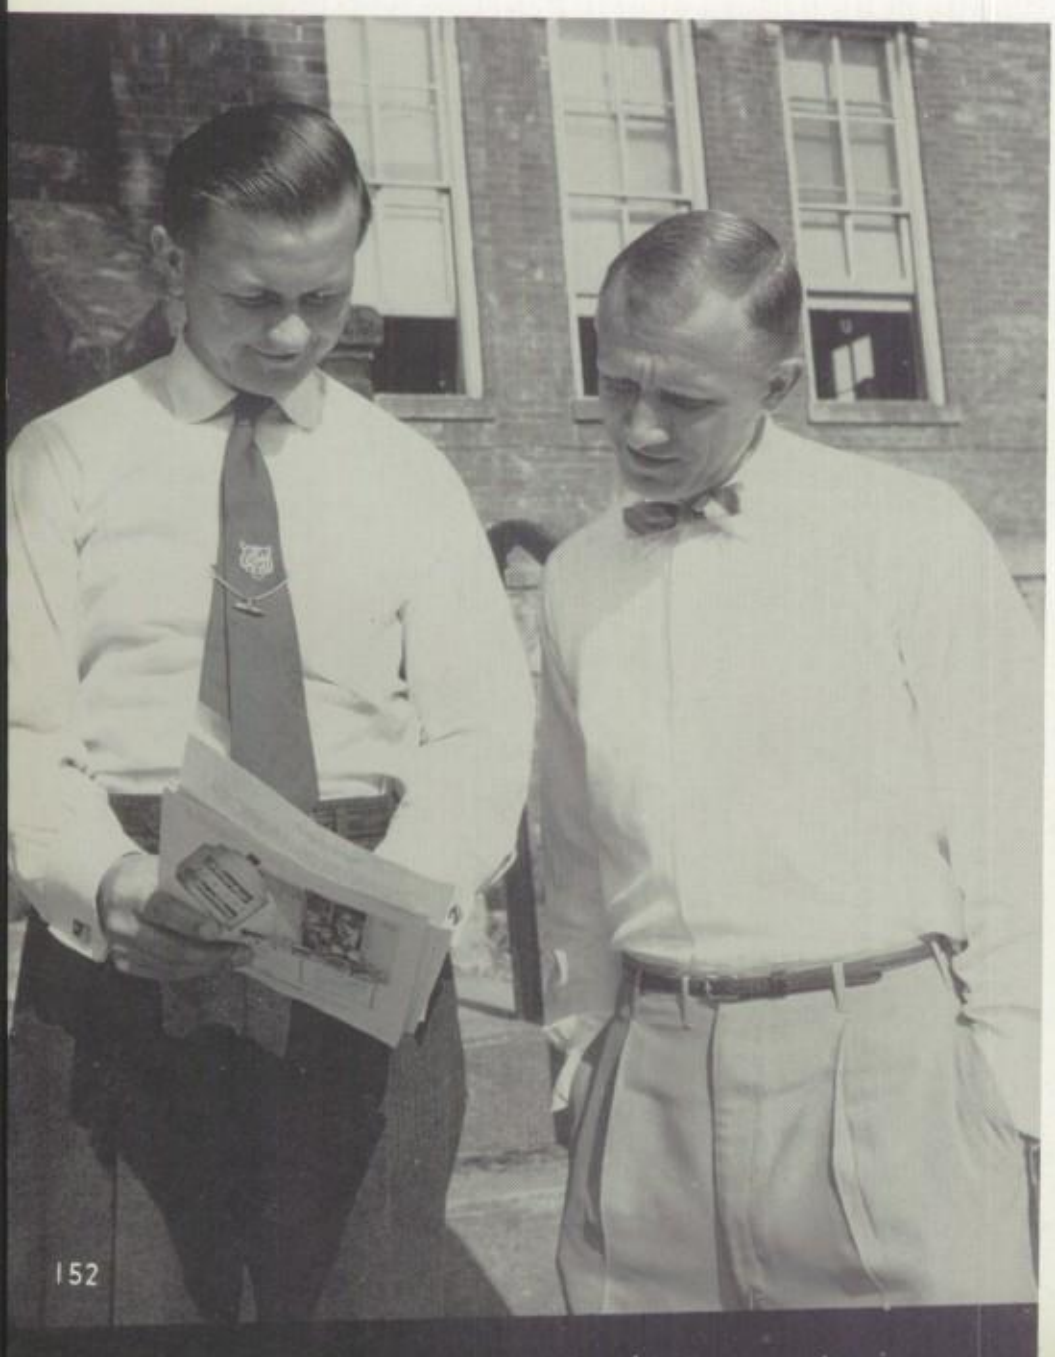
Our coaching staff suffered a great loss this year with the resignation of Coach Jim McDonald. After many successful seasons at S.H.S., Jim decided to leave us and take a job with the University of Tennessee. We wish him much happiness in coaching in the years ahead.

First row: Ted Banta, Lamar Warfield, Dick Robinson, Billy Williams, Marvin Cooley, and Ray Tolliver. Second row: Craig Payne, Lee Morgan, Mike Moss, Leroy Butler, Carter Watson, Tom Schaffer, and Dale Lynch. Third row: Buster Oliver, Jerry Hoyt, Larry Nourse, Bill Grant, Phil Day, Jim Drum, Kenny Shatto, and John Hidy. Fifth row: Coach Paul Walters, Ron Burton, Ron Murphy, Ernie Glenn, Robert Burley, Clifford Henry, Edgar Willeman, Coach Bill Clauss.



The record of our track team this year was good, but not quite so good as in past years. After a mediocre start, the team climaxed their year by taking first place in the district meet and then sixth place in the state. The high spots on the team this year were Howard Nourse in the high jump, Ron Moseley in the pole vault, and the 880-yard and mile relay teams.

Track coaches Bill Clauss and Paul "Bucky" Walters check over the coming events of the Springfield High track team.

Howard Nourse, who finished third in the high jump in the state and compiled many points during the season, clears the bar at a practice session.

track and field events

Ronald "Moose" Rhine heaves the shot-put. This talented junior worked diligently throughout the season to improve greatly in his event.

Absent when these pictures were taken were Ernie Glenn and Dale Parsons, two outstanding senior men, who garnered many points during the season.

Ronald Mosely, one of the top point men this spring sizes up the height of the bar, as he prepares to vault. Ron climaxed an excellent year by finishing first in the District meet with a jump of twelve feet eight inches, and by grabbing third place in the State meet.

During the annual Springfield High Relays, Jim Nave runs the hurdles in the championship heat.

No Secret:

Your Bluebird of Happiness sings on the Wittenberg campus.

You remember how youngsters in Maeterlinck's story left home to seek the Bluebird of Happiness; how, when weary and empty handed, they returned home — to find IT there?

EXACTLY. Why leave home to go to college when you have IT right here in your home town?

Why go east, for instance, when 122 students from the Atlantic seaboard states come to live in your town just to attend Wittenberg? They, too, want the good education this college gives.

And you are right next door!

Your college life at Wittenberg will be a satisfying and happy experience.
